

FASD Training for Initial Child Foster Care Licensure

Morrison County Social Services – Post Test

The Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders FASD Basic

Website: www.youtube.com/watch?v=yEK3jdhD_xo

Person(s) Completing: _____ Date: _____

1. Alcohol is capable of damaging the fetus at any point in the pregnancy. True or False
2. The window of time that the facial features of a human can be effected from alcohol use is only a couple days. True or False
3. The poplar media frequently draws invalid _____ from research and presents _____ messages.
4. In the US, _____ knowingly consume some alcohol while pregnant.
5. What is an example of one STANDARD drink? _____
6. FASD stands for what? _____
7. FASD is a Pre-cursor to Psychopathy/other problems. Please list two _____.
8. _____: a drug or other substance capable of interfering with the development of the fetus and causing birth defects and/or developmental disabilities.
9. Of all the substances of abuse (including cocaine, heroin, and marijuana), _____ produces, by far the most serious neurobehavioral effects in the fetus.
10. Prevention of FASD is a complex mix of: _____, _____, _____.
11. Mean IQ in individuals with FASD is often reported between the mid- _____.
12. _____ involves abstract thinking, problem solving, planning and falexible thinking. All common with FASD.
13. People with FASD may _____ learned material.
14. Common strengths of a person with FASD) List 2) _____, _____
15. FASD cannot be _____ but can be _____.
16. What is one thing you learned that was new information to you?
